"AMERICAN-BRITISH SEA PACT FORMED"

TROOPERS LEAVE SPRINGFIELD

City Quiet, But Special Guards Still on Duty

EX-SOLDIERS AID POLICE
Davis to Probe Complaints Against Sheriff

SPRINGFIELD — (By Associated Press) — All national guard troops who have been on duty here since last Friday night as a protection against racial disturbances, growing out of the mistreatment of a little white girl by an unknown negro, and the shooting of a policeman while he was attempting to disperse a crowd of negroes on the streets, were withdrawn this morning.

City authorities announced that they were prepared to deal with any further disturbances.

More than 100 former service men and city firemen helped the police patrol the city last night, manned motor trucks, were ready for riot calls.

There was no disorder. The two local machine gun companies of the national guard has turned its equipment over to the police and ex-service men who will be on duty again tonight.

DAVIS INVESTIGATES
Governor Davis was scheduled to arrive here today to make a personal investigation to determine whether the calling of the troops was justified and attempt to fix the responsibility for the disorder. A full report of the entire situation has been laid before him by national guard officials. He was said to have received complaints against Sheriff David Jones on account of the manner in which the trouble was handled.

Company C, of London was the first of the troops to leave at 7 o'clock. Companies B, and L, and headquarters and supply company of Columbus and the sanitary detachment of Delaware were left at 7:45 for Columbus. Company M, Marysville left at 9 o'clock.

DAVIS CHANGES MIND
COLUMBUS — (By Associated Press) — Governor Davis announced today that he had decided not to go to Springfield to make a personal investigation of the circumstances leading up to the recent racial disorders. He will accept reports made to him by representatives of the adjutant-general.

SHRIMP TALKS
SPRINGFIELD — (By Associated Press) — David T. Jones, clerk-sheriff, whose handling of the racial disturbances in Springfield last week, is said to have been criticized in complaints filed with Governor Davis issued a statement this morning in which he said he "courted a full investigation." He said the "rumor came from 'political enemies' of the sheriff said the call for troops was issued by him at the urgent request of city authorities after the shooting of Patrolman Joseph Ryan last Friday night.

I am criticized by some people for permitting four members of a big crowd to enter the jail last Wednesday night when they refused to believe my statements that the negro who assaulted the little Perneau girl was not in jail," said the sheriff. "In that case I took what I thought to be the logical step. My actions then prevented the storming of the jail and perhaps saved the lives of many negroes, as there were 20 of them in the jail. I will admit the course taken was unusual but it was necessary."

LIMA PAINTERS ENDORSE
BILL AGAINST MONOPOLY
OF STATE IN INSURANCE

At a special meeting of the Master Painters and Decorators' association of Lima, a resolution was adopted, for transmission to Representative Jasper Cochran, unanimously endorsing the provisions of House bill No. 247, known as the Burns bill.

This bill, if passed, will again open workmen's compensation to competition by private liability insurance companies. The state now has a monopoly on liability insurance.

HOTEL GUESTS FLEE AS SMOKE FILLS ROOMS

NEW YORK — Several hundred guests of the Hotel Seville, a twelve story structure at Madison-ave and Twenty-ninth-st, were driven from their rooms early today by dense clouds of smoke, which found their way thru the building from a fire in the basement.

The blaze, which had its origin in a store room adjoining the hotel kitchen, was under the control of firemen after a fight of more than an hour.

BARBERS' STRIKE ENDS
TONGTOWN — A four day strike of union barbers was ended today when the men voted to agree to the minor barbers' reduction of the price of hair-cuts from 75 to 50 cents. Non-union shops, which have been charging only 50 cents, today reduced the price of shaves from 25 to 20 cents.

TRAGEDY RE-ENACTED IN COURT BY CLARA HAMON

Accused Slayer of Millionaire Testifies in Own Defense

HIT WITH CHAIR, SHOT FIRED
Gun Went Off During Fight, She Tells Jury

COURTHOUSE, ARDMORE, Okla. — (By United Press) — Clara Smith Hamon took the stand today to protect her mother's name and save her own life.

The pretty girl, garbed in a blue tailored suit and tailored hat, tipped to the stand.

She seemed to have full control of herself.

The girl, charged with slaying Jake L. Hamon, said:

"I have known Mr. Hamon many years.

"He paid my tuition at business college at Fort Worth and New Lexington.

"I became his stenographer and later his private secretary.

"Yes, he and I have occupied adjoining rooms at the Randol Hotel.

SHOOTING DESCRIBED
"I knew he was a married man, yes sir, I did."

November 21, when Hamon was shot, was described as follows, by Clara:

"We had breakfast at 11. He went to his office. I went back to my room. He came back to the room in the afternoon. We had a very pleasant conversation.

"He rested for a while.

"I got in my car and started for a ride about six and rode for an hour.

"When I got back, Mr. Hamon was seated in front of the hotel.

"I went up to him.

"He yelled: 'Where in the hell have you been?'

"I replied: 'Please don't make a scene; we'll go to the room.'

"Again, he grabbed me by the arm and shouted: 'You — where have you been?'

AFRAID OF HAMON
"I got up from the chair. I was afraid of Hamon. I wanted to hide from him for 24 hours."

"Then, we could go to California as the sweet lovers we had always been before."

Mr. Hamon called me 'You —' and I choked me. He kicked me — he threw me on the bed — then he jerked me off to the floor."

"He kicked and kicked me again on the back."

"He pulled me up and threw me against the window."

"He twisted my arms, bent my fingers back. He shouted 'I'll slit your throat!'

REACHED FOR KNIFE
"But he couldn't find it and was still cursing. He said: 'You've been riding with some one.'

"He saw a knife on my dresser and reached for it, and said:

"I would just as soon slit your throat!'

"I knew the time was coming."

"I reached to the window sill and got my little gun."

"He backed up behind a chair."

"I passed him to get out of the room."

"I reached the door with the gun pointed."

"He dashed off the light. From light over the transom, I saw him raise a chair."

"He hit me with the chair — the gun went off."

Clara, undaunted, picked up the gun and stopped before the jury to re-enact the tragedy.

MARRIED NEPHEW
"I married Mr. Hamon's nephew, but it was a marriage of convenience. I never lived with him," she said, in answer to McLean's question.

"I used the name of Hamon when with Mr. Hamon. I sometimes went by the name of Clara B. Smith."

"Mr. Hamon gave me the money and told me where in Oklahoma City to buy a pistol after another I had was stolen."

"We all carried pistols in the oil fields."

"It was too dangerous to go without one."

"After Hamon was shot, I said: 'Lie down on the bed and I'll call a doctor.'

were there, but left when I entered."

She corroborated Ketch's testimony of yesterday in which he said, he ordered her out of town.

Judge Champion recessed the court until 1:30 p. m.

Clara resumed the stand at that time.

CLASH HALTS COURT
COURTHOUSE, ARDMORE, Okla. — (By United Press) — Charges that Clara's mother and family lived on their daughter's shame temporarily broke up the Hamon murder trial today.

This came when Prosecutor Brown jumped to his feet and shouted:

"We can show that the whole Smith family lived on the Hamon estate."

"Wild Bill" McLean jumped to his feet and yelled:

"This girl's mother is as good as any who ever gave birth to any lawyer in this case."

It seemed as the every one in the court clapped and shouted approval of his answer.

The judge ordered the court cleared.

Mrs. Jake Hamon, at the mention of the word mother broke down and was led out by her son Jake Jr.

Clara burst into tears and was led out by Jimmie her brother and pal.

Women sobbed as they left the courtroom.

Defendant in West Virginia Case Attends Son's Funeral

WILLIAMSON, W. Va. — (By United Press) — The murder trial of Sid Hatfield and 16 others accused in connection with the war with Baldwin-Felts detectives, paused this morning while Art Williams, one of the defendants, attended the funeral of his three-year-old son.

Court adjourned yesterday until 2 o'clock today, so Williams could attend the services in Matewan.

"Doug" Mounts, who has kept his place in defendant's row, despite the torture of fever, bullet wounds and other pains, was still seriously ill today, but determined not to cause delay in the trial.

State attorneys today expected to complete their rebuttal evidence late this afternoon or early tomorrow, still making it possible for the case to go to the jury by Saturday morning.

SCHOOL MEASURE UP TODAY

Ohio Senate to Act on Indefinite Tenure Bill

MOVIE ACT BEFORE HOUSE
Proposed Adjournment March 31 Expected to Fail

COLUMBUS — (By Associated Press) — The resolution providing for final adjournment of the legislature March 31, is on the senate calendar for vote today, having come over from the house yesterday. It is expected that instead of calling it to a vote, it will be sent to committee to await developments. Most of the senate membership is said to be dubious about ability to finish its business by that date and may hold the resolution in committee for some time until it is determined whether all measures requiring action can be handled by March 31.

APPROPRIATIONS
The house yesterday received the biennial appropriation bill carrying $90,146,222.57, an increase of approximately $39,000,000 over the bill of two years ago, but almost $15,000,000 less than was asked by heads of departments and institutions. It was said by Representative Carpenter of Jefferson-co, chairman of the house finance committee, that the bill carries about $1,000,000 less than the budget presented by former Governor Cox at the beginning of the session.

The great increase is accounted for by the increase in the state common school levy amounting to almost 15 mills and the increase in the road levy, automobile license and federal aid. The amount provided for public schools is $38,500,000 and for roads $18,226,240. No appropriation is made for Kent Normal School on account of alleged unsatisfactory conditions there. Representative Matthews of Port-mouth, has asked the attorney general to draft a resolution providing for a legislative investigation of the school.

SCHOOL MEASURE
The McCoy-Bender school teachers' indefinite tenure bill is on the senate calendar as a special order of business this afternoon. The senate common schools committee recommended its passage. It is generally predicted that it will be defeated.

The McCoy-Bender picture bill, to bar motion pictures depicting crimes which are felonies under the state laws is up for passage in the house, after the Gordon bill to extend jurisdiction of justices of the peace in liquor cases and the Boylston bill providing for confiscation of vehicles in which liquor is illegally transported, are disposed of.

It is not expected that the house will reach the two taxator bills backed by the uniform rule advocates tomorrow, as they are at the foot of a calendar containing more than 25 measures for action.

The reorganization committee was to continue hearings today on the reorganization bill.

YOUTH SLAIN, TWO CLAIM BODY

Mystery Develops in Death of Indiana Young Man

IDENTIFICATIONS PUZZLE
"My Son," "My Brother," Different Families Assert

WARSAW, Ind. — (By Associated Press) — A co. one's investigation to be held at Bourbon, Ind., near here today, into the death Saturday night of a youth apparently about 20 years old, who was found in a dyking condition near a railroad crossing, 12 miles from Warsaw, is expected to shed some light on one of the strangest cases ever to come to the attention of local authorities.

It was at first believed the young man had been struck by a train, but investigation by the authorities is said to have disclosed the fact that he had been beaten to death in a shack nearby.

IDENTIFIED TWICE
Several hours after the body was found, Fred Decker, a farmer of near here, identified the body as that of his brother, Virgil Decker, aged 20. He asked that he might bury the brother immediately, but was refused permission to do so until after the coroner's inquest.

A new angle in the case developed last night, when John Lovett, of Elkhart, arrived here and identified the body as that of his son LeRoy, aged 19. It was also brought out that Virgil Decker was last seen in the company of LeRoy Lovett. The young men are said to be "doubles", resembling each other to such an extent that it is almost impossible to tell them apart.

ARRESTS EXPECTED
Neither has been seen since the tragedy.

Coroner N. B. Aspinwall of Marshall-co, who will conduct the inquest, indicated last night the authorities had gathered information that would clear the mystery somewhat, and stated that after the inquest he would order the arrest of persons in connection with the case.

U. S. CHEST JUMPS
HALF BILLION

Today's Income and Profit Taxes to Swell Riches

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — The American people today had their annual day of reckoning. Their laboriously reckoned incomes and business profits for the year of 1920 were presented in the form of business and excess profit tax returns to collectors of internal revenue throughout the country.

The United States government as a result will be richer tonight by approximately $500,000,000, according to an estimate by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon.

GOES OUT QUICKLY
But the riches will not be for long for the receipts will be needed immediately to retire short term borrowings or certificates of indebtedness issued by the government amounting to $500,000,000.

Some fiscal experts at the treasury expect today's income and excess profits receipts to approximate $600,000,000. If such is the case, the extra funds will find a ready use in application to the public debt and redemption of war savings securities.

Payments to the railroads under the guaranty provision of the transportation act also may absorb a portion of receipts over the half million total.

HIT BY DEPRESSION
Receipts a year ago today were $800,000,000 but the general depression experienced during the last half of 1920 was counted on to decrease the total incomes and profits reported. The present financial situation was considered as likely to cut down also the number of taxpayers who pay their entire tax in one installment.

Collectors of revenue faced the usual busy day. Many of the offices will remain open until late tonight to accommodate late taxpayers. For persons or business concerns taxable under the law who fail to make a return today with at least a payment of one-fourth the total tax, a penalty is proscribed. Returns sent by mail postmarked today will be considered as having been made today.

BEATEN, ROBBED.
AKRON — Gust Crummediscar was beaten and robbed of $1,600 in cash and $30. worth of jewelry early today by two men who waylaid him at his garage, he reported to police.

OCEANS "DIVIDED" BY AGREEMENT

U. S. to Police Pacific, England, the Atlantic, Report Says

"WARNING TO THE JAPANESE"

London to Send Board for Parley in Washington

LONDON — (By United Press) — Great Britain and America have agreed to an amiable "division" of the seas, according to general belief here today.

As a result of the agreement, it was believed, Great Britain will police the Atlantic ocean, America the Pacific.

The impression was strengthened by announcements from London and one from Washington on the same day.

From Washington came the announcement that the Pacific fleet probably would assume more importance than the Atlantic.

From London came the announcement that Great Britain will reduce her naval budget by $70,000,000, thereby abandoning any thought of competition with America's naval program.

TIES STRENGTHENED
There was a general belief here that friendly relations between the United States and Great Britain would be greatly strengthened. If America goes thru with its proposed program of concentrating naval power in the Pacific there will then no longer any question be raised by the British as to "who is America building against?"

REPORTS IMPRESS JAPAN
Reports from Washington that America was considering putting its fleet in the Pacific will probably impress Japan, the United States wants to impress Japan with its naval strength.

The presence of a big American fleet in the Pacific will probably influence Japan that war with America at the present time is not feasible, many experts believe.

America's fleet in the Pacific probably would take over the patrol work now done by the British navy in waters adjacent to its colonies there and thus considerably reduce the naval expense for the naval establishment.

BRITISH MISSION COMING
WASHINGTON — (By United Press) — The British government has begun the organization of a special mission, which it proposes to send to the United States within the next month, according to advices received here today in official quarters.

The mission will formally convey its congratulations and wishes of success to the new administration and then proceed to the discussion of numerous outstanding questions between this government and Britain.

Among the subjects to be discussed, it was understood today, are an association of nations, disarmament, German reparations and British indebtedness to the United States.

PERSONNEL FIGURES
The first advice concerning the British mission, indicate that it will be headed by three leading figures, a statesman chosen from the highest ranks of Britain's public men, a high military officer and a representative naval leader. Aides and secretaries will complete the mission.

The personnel of the delegation, it is learned, is being chosen with the utmost care, with a view of eliminating any figure which might arouse hostility among the strong pro-Irish in this government.

The British government is desirous to eliminate any embarrassment in connection with the Irish question.

FOLLOW-UP ACTION
So far as can be learned here the mission in head of the commission has not been determined, altho H. H. Asquith, former premier, and Winston Churchill have been mentioned for the post.

The information reaching Washington indicated that formal announcement of the mission will not be made in London for another week or ten days.

The British decision to send a mission to the United States is in line with the action of the French government in appointing Rene Viviani, former premier, to discuss foreign affairs with the Harding administration, and may have been prompted by the French move. According to the interpretation here, it is part of an effort to gain America's co-operation in European affairs and is welcomed by this government because of the opportunity it affords the United States to define its position after discussion with the foreign representatives.

This photo, taken at trial of Clara Smith Hamon for murder of Jake Hamon, shows Mrs. Jake Hamon, left, her mother, Mrs. J. L. Perkins, and, below, Olivebelle Hamon, Mrs. Hamon's daughter.

Mrs. J. L. Perkins, mother of the widow of Jake Hamon, is caring for her during the trial of Clara Smith Hamon. Mrs. Hamon was taken ill early in the trial, the sight of her dead husband's blood-stained garments prostrating her. Olivebelle Hamon, daughter of Mrs. Hamon, is also with her mother.

were there, but left when I entered."

She corroborated Ketch's testimony of yesterday in which he said he ordered her out of town.

Judge Champion recessed the court until 1:30 p. m.

Clara resumed the stand at that time.

CLASH WITH COURT

COURTHOUSE, ARDMORE, Okla. — (By United Press) — Charges that Clara's mother and family lived on their daughter's shame temporarily broke up the Hamon murder trial today.

This came when Prosecutor Brown jumped to his feet and shouted:

"We can show that the whole Smith family lived on the Hamon estate."

"Wild Bill" McLean jumped to his feet and yelled:

"This girl's mother is as good as any who ever gave birth to any lawyer in this case."

It seemed as the every one in the court clapped and shouted approval of his answer.

The judge ordered the court cleared.

Mrs. Jake Hamon, at the mention of the word mother broke down and was led out by her son Jake Jr.

Clara hurried to tears and was led out by Jimmie her brother and pal.

Women sobbed as they left the courtroom.

DEATH SUSPENDS MURDER TRIAL

Defendant in West Virginia Case Attends Son's Funeral

WILLIAMSON, W. Va. — (By United Press) — The murder trial of Sid Hatfield and 16 others accused in connection with the war with Baldwin-Felts detectives, paused this morning while Art Williams, one of the defendants, attended the funeral of his three-year-old son.

Court adjourned yesterday until 2 o'clock today, so Williams could attend the services in Matewan.

"Doug" Mounts, who has kept his place in defendant's row, despite the torture of fever, bullet wounds and other pains, was still seriously ill today, but determined not to cause delay in the trial.

State attorneys today expected to complete their rebuttal evidence late this afternoon or early tomorrow, still making it possible for the case to go to the jury by Saturday morning.

"GIFT CORN DAY" PLANS ARE GIVEN AN IMPETUS

Blanks have been mailed to the representatives of the Allen-co Farm Bureau, in all the townships in the county, in an attempt to secure information as to the amount of corn which may be expected on "Gift Corn Day" and the best points to concentrate the shipments. Each representative received 100 blanks and was urged to have them filled out by the farmers and returned at once to L. S. Van Natta, county farm agent, at Memorial Hall.

SCHOOL MEASURE UP TODAY

Ohio Senate to Act on Indefinite Tenure Bill

MOVIE ACT BEFORE HOUSE

Proposed Adjournment March 31 Expected to Fail

COLUMBUS. — (By Associated Press) — The resolution providing for final adjournment of the legislature March 31, is on the senate calendar for vote today, having come over from the house yesterday. It is expected that instead of calling it to a vote, it will be sent to committee to await developments. Most of the senate membership is said to be dubious about ability to finish its business by that date and may hold the resolution in committee for some time until it is determined whether all measures requiring action can be handled by March 31.

APPROPRIATIONS

The house yesterday received the biennial appropriation bill carrying $90,814,622.57, an increase of approximately $39,000,000 over the bill of two years ago, but almost $15,000,000 less than was asked by heads of departments and institutions.

It was said by Representative Carpenter of Jefferson, chairman of the house finance committee, that the bill carries about $1,000,000 less than the budget presented by former Governor Cox at the beginning of the session.

The great increase is accounted for by the increase in the state common school levy amounting to almost 1.8 mills and the increase in the road levy, automobile license, and federal aid. The amount provided for public schools is $36,500,000 and for roads $18,226,240. No appropriation is made for Kent National School on account of alleged unsatisfactory conditions there.

Representative Matthews, of Portsmouth, has asked the attorney general to draft a resolution providing for a legislative investigation of the school.

SCHOOL MEASURE

The McCoy-Bender school teachers' indefinite tenure bill is on the senate calendar as a special order of business this afternoon. The committee recommended its passage. It is generally predicted that it will be defeated.

The McCoy motion picture bill, to bar motion pictures depicting crimes which are felonies under the state laws is up for passage in the house, after the Gordon bill to extend jurisdiction of justices of the peace in liquor cases and the Boylan bill providing for confiscation of vehicles in which liquor is illegally transported, are disposed of.

It is not expected that the house will reach the two taxation bills backed by the uniform rule advocates tomorrow, as they are at the foot of a calendar containing more than 25 measures for action.

The reorganization committee was to continue hearings today on the reorganization bill.

WORKERS PLAN TO MEET PACKERS

Conference to be Held on Wage Cut March 21

CHICAGO — (By Associated Press) — Dennis Lane, secretary-treasurer of the Amalgamated Meat Union, and another labor representative not yet selected, will represent the packing house workers at their conference in Washington, March 21, with representatives of the five leading packers and secretaries of the departments of labor, commerce and agriculture, it was announced today.

Strike ballots were being mailed out by union leaders today to the packing centers in the middle west, asking their members to vote upon the eight hour day question involved in the wage reductions and rearrangement of hours which the packers placed in effect yesterday.

President Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, is expected to arrive in Chicago late today, Lane announced, to address a meeting tomorrow at headquarters of the Chicago Federation of Labor.

Conditions were reported normal in dispatches from the leading packing concerns yesterday, and a much greater number than usual applied for jobs at the stock yards here yesterday, packing officials said. They issued a statement warning men not to come here from other cities seeking work in the stock yards.

Plans of Armour and Company announced yesterday to organize a council representing the employees to settle matters involving working conditions was characterized by Lane as "bunk."

"The packers go ahead and cut wages and then announce the workmen will be given a voice in the management," Lane said. "But you notice the order comes a day too late — too late for the employees to have anything to say in the matter of the wage cuts."

Similar plans for a council of employees are expected to be announced by others of the packing companies soon.

The dead girl recently came here from Somerset, Ky.

YOUTH SLAIN, TWO CLAIM BODY

Mystery Develops in Death of Indiana Young Man

IDENTIFICATIONS PUZZLE

"My Son," "My Brother," Different Families Assert

WARSAW, Ind. — (By Associated Press) — A coroner's investigation to be held at Bourbon, Ind., near here today, into the death Saturday night of a youth apparently about 20 years old, who was found in a dying condition near a railroad crossing, 12 miles from Warsaw, is expected to shed some light on one of the strangest cases ever to come to the attention of local authorities.

It was at first believed the young man had been struck by a train, but investigation by the authorities is said to have disclosed the fact that he had been beaten to death in a shack nearby.

IDENTIFIED TWICE

Several hours after the body was found, Fred Decker, a farmer of near here, identified the body as that of his brother, Virgil Decker, aged 20. He asked that he might bury the brother immediately, but was refused permission to do so until after the coroner's inquest.

A new angle in the case developed last night, when John Lovett, of Elkhart, arrived here and identified the body as that of his son Leroy, aged 19. It was also brought out that Virgil Decker was last seen in the company of Lovett.

The young men are said to be "doubles," resembling each other to such an extent that it is almost impossible to tell them apart.

ARRESTS EXPECTED

Neither has been seen since the tragedy.

Coroner N. B. Aspinwall of Marshall-co, who will conduct the inquest, indicated last night the authorities had gathered information that would clear the mystery somewhat, and stated that after the inquest he would order the arrest of persons in connection with the case.

U. S. CHEST JUMPS HALF BILLION

Today's Income and Profit Taxes to Swell Riches

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — The American people today had their annual day of reckoning. Their laboriously reckoned income and business profits for the year of 1920 were presented in the form of business and excess profit tax returns to collectors of internal revenue throughout the country.

The United States government as a result will be richer tonight by approximately $600,000,000, according to an estimate by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon.

GOES OUT QUICKLY

But the riches will not be long for the receipts will be needed immediately to retire short term borrowings or certificates of indebtedness issued by the government amounting to $500,000,000.

Some fiscal experts at the treasury expect today's income and excess profits receipts to approximate $600,000,000. If such is the case, the extra funds will find a ready use in application to the public debt and redemption of war savings securities. Payments to the railroads under the guaranty provision of the transportation act also may absorb a portion of receipts over the half million total.

HIT BY DEPRESSION

Receipts a year ago today were $800,000,000 but the general depression experienced during the last half of 1920 was counted on to decrease the total incomes and profits reported. The present financial situation was considered as likely to cut down also the number of taxpayers who pay their entire tax in one installment.

Collectors of revenue faced the usual busy day. Many of the offices will remain open until late tonight to accommodate late taxpayers. For persons or business concerns taxable under the law who fail to make a return today with at least a payment of one-fourth the total tax, a penalty is prescribed. Returns sent by mail post-marked today will be considered as having been made today.

BEATEN, ROBBED.

AKRON — Gust Crumenscar was beaten and robbed of $1,600 in cash and $30. worth of jewelry early today by two men who waylaid him at his garage, he reported to police.

OCEANS "DIVIDED" BY AGREEMENT

U. S. to Police Pacific, England the Atlantic, Report Says

"WARNING TO THE JAPANESE"

London to Send Board for Parley in Washington

LONDON — (By United Press) — Great Britain and America have agreed to an amicable "division" of the seas, according to general belief here, today.

As a result of the agreement, it was believed, Great Britain will police the Atlantic ocean, America the Pacific.

The impression was strengthened by announcements from London and one from Washington on the same day.

From Washington came the announcement that the Pacific fleet probably would assume more importance than the Atlantic.

From London came the announcement that Great Britain will reduce her naval budget by $70,000,000, thereby abandoning any thought of competition with America's naval program.

TIPS STRENGTHENED

There was a general belief here that friendly relations between the United States and Great Britain would be greatly strengthened. If America goes thru with its proposed program of concentrating naval power in the Pacific, there will then no longer any question be raised by the British as to "who is America building against?"

WOULD IMPRESS JAPAN

Reports from Washington that America was considering putting its fleet in the Pacific will probably impress Japan. The United States wants to impress Japan with its naval strength.

The presence of a big American fleet in the Pacific will probably influence Japan that war with America at the present time is not feasible, many experts believe.

America's fleet in the Pacific probably would take over the patrol work now done by the British navy in waters adjacent to the colonies and thus considerably reduce the empire's expense for the naval establishment.

BRITISH MISSION COMING

WASHINGTON — (By United Press) — The British government has begun the organization of a special mission which it proposes to send to the United States within the next month, according to advices received here today in official quarters.

The mission will formally convey its congratulations and wishes of success to the new administration and then proceed to the discussion of numerous outstanding questions between this government and Britain.

Among the subjects to be discussed, it was understood today, are an association of nations, disarmament, German reparations and Britain's indebtedness to the United States.

MISSION FIGURES

The first advices concerning the British mission indicate that it will be headed by three leading figures, a statesman chosen from the highest ranks of Britain's public men, a high military officer and a representative naval leader. Aides and secretaries will complete the mission.

The personnel of the delegation, it is learned, is being chosen with the utmost care, with a view of eliminating any figure which might arouse hostility among the strong pro-Irish in this government.

FOLLOWS FRENCH ACTION

So far as can be learned here the civilian head of the commission has not been determined, although H. H. Asquith, former premier, and Winston Churchill have been mentioned for the post.

The information reaching Washington indicated that formal announcement of the mission will not be made in London for another week or ten days.

The British decision to send a mission to the United States is in line with the action of the French government in appointing Rene Viviani, former premier, to discuss foreign affairs with the Harding administration.

The French move was prompted by the French desire to bring to the interpretation here, it is part of an effort to gain America's co-operation in European affairs and is welcomed by this government because of the opportunity it affords the United States to define its position after discussion with the foreign representatives.

COLUMBUS — Persons seeking to rule a judge from bench in divorce cases on grounds of prejudice, hereafter will be compelled to show actual prejudice, Chief Justice Marshall of the supreme court ruled today in refusing to sustain an affidavit in prejudice filed against Judge Cooper of the common pleas court at Youngstown by attorneys for R. A. Redden in an action against Robert B. Redden. Request was made that Judge Cooper be relieved from hearing the case and that another judge be assigned to hear the evidence.

PIONEER OF LIMA DIES IN WEST

Nonagenarian John R. Hughes
Summoned by Death

AIDED CITY DEVELOPMENT

Body Here Friday; Funeral Services Saturday

John R. Hughes, 91, actively identified with the history and growth of early Lima, died in Los Angeles, Cal., Monday. From the early sixties until 20 years ago he conducted a stove and tinware shop and household goods furnishings department in the southeast corner of the public square.

He was one of the founders of the Woodlawn cemetery association and served as its first secretary and treasurer. L. E. Stamets assumed charge of the affairs of the cemetery association when Mr. Hughes removed to California. He still holds that position. Deceased is said to be among the last of the founders of the cemetery association to find a final resting place there.

He was one of the builders of the Union-Bank public square, and for some years occupied a part of it with his business. He left Lima for California about the year 1900. He served on the city council several terms.

The arch over entrance to Woodlawn cemetery was a gift of John R. Hughes and is known as the Hughes memorial. While in Lima he resided in the property now owned by W. L. Russell, 649 W. Market-st. He was one of the men through whose efforts Lima grew and expanded until it became the city it is now, according to F. E. Harman, who had an intimate acquaintance with Mr. Hughes.

Mr. Harman declared he did business here when the father of the Mitchell brothers, now identified with the City Bank, conducted a harness shop. That business was simply incidental to the growing concerns which now grace Lima streets and which has contributed to the fame of the city, Harman said.

LEAVES TWO DAUGHTERS.
Deceased resided with a daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Weller, a widow, in Los Angeles. Mrs. Florence Mead, another daughter, resides near Los Angeles. The family requests that friends will omit flowers at the final service.

The funeral party will leave Chicago over Erie railroad Friday at 1:10 p. m. and will probably arrive in Lima late that night. Services will be held at Woodlawn chapel Saturday at 2 o'clock. The Rev. Samuel Tuecker, pastor of Market-st. Presbyterian church, will officiate. Interment will be in Woodlawn beside the grave of his wife, who died some years ago.

MANY GIRLS ENTER CONTEST TO WIN PLACE IN MOVIES

Lima girls are taking advantage of the opportunity to enter the contest in which a new movie actress will be chosen for Thomas H. Ince, noted producer. Already a large number of photographs have been received at the box office at the Sigma theater.

Any girl in the city or county is eligible to enter if she is between 16 and 30 years of age. All that is necessary is to take a photograph to the box office of the Sigma theater before 8 o'clock Saturday night. Names and addresses should be fastened securely to photographs.

Ten girls will be selected from the list entered to take part in a special play which will be filmed here next Monday or Tuesday. This picture will then be shown at the Sigma. Following that three pictures will be selected to go to the Ince company for consideration in the selection of a new actress to take part in the great productions he puts out.

Ince is credited with discovering and developing more noted screen stars than any other producer. The girl he chooses in this contest, which is being conducted in various cities, will be paid $100 a week for six months in addition to her expenses and the expenses of her mother or chaperone. She will be taught the movie business and if, at the end of that time she is successful, she will be given a contract at a much larger salary.

Those who want to enter should take their pictures to the Sigma as soon as possible. Those who will be chosen to participate in the local movie will be notified Monday.

POLE SHORTAGE IS FISHING MENACE

Dealers Say They Can't Get 'Em; Fish Are Biting

Fishermen who prefer to use the old time cane poles are going to have difficulty this year in securing them, unless dealers have more luck in getting new supplies from wholesalers.

Hardware merchants and others in Lima who handle the poles, say that they are able to buy other kinds of poles but are not having much success in getting hold of the old time long poles.

J. D. Agertier, of the Agertier & Blackburn hardware store, E. Market-st., said Tuesday that the poles are difficult for wholesale dealers to buy now, but that later on in the season he expects plenty can be had.

The reason for the shortage is unknown, unless it is that the thousands of jobless laborers are taking to fishing and are buying more poles than the supply can stand and at the same time keep up a consistent output to all stores wanting the "fishing sticks."

Tuesday's weather caused many persons to take out their fishing tackle and hie to the rivers and creeks about Lima. Outgoing inter-urban cars carried scores of people with their poles to rivers, and it is understood that members of the fishing tribe are biting better than usual this early in the season.

Crappies are beginning to bite good and early reports indicate that many have already been caught by fishermen who apply the old saying, "the early bird always catches the worm."

DOG LICENSES TOTAL 3,297, SURPASSING RECORD OF LAST YEAR

Last year's high record for number of dog licenses taken out in Allen-co was exceeded by one on Monday when a total of 3,296 dogs was obtained. The total for 1920 was 3,285. Another was taken out Tuesday, bringing the 1921 total to 3,297.

"While the time for taking out licenses has expired for those who owned canines prior to January 1, 1921," Auditor Phillips said Tuesday, "of course it is necessary for the opportunity to be afforded owners of canines to secure licenses through out the year, as parties are constantly acquiring dogs, which they desire to have protected by law and are taking out tags for them."

TONY SETONA FINED AND JAILED FOR SHIRT THEFT

Anthony Setona, W. Spring-st., was not satisfied with the way Judge Jackson found him guilty as a petty thief in criminal court Tuesday morning.

When the judge pronounced a sentence of 10 days in the county jail and a fine of $10, Tony said: "You can't get me that way. You've got to prove it first. I won't stand for this."

At any rate, Tony was led from the court room by Turnkey Abe Vinegar and locked up in city prison for commitment to the county jail.

Mrs. Homer Rider identified a shirt and a tie as the ones which Setona is accused of having stolen from her home recently.

REV. BAY ACCEPTS CALL TO AKRON

Rejects Tender of Pulpit in Michigan City, Ind.

Receiving a second call within a week, Rev. A. E. Bay, pastor of the Immanuel Evangelical Lutheran church, has decided to accept the offer from the Faith Lutheran church of Akron.

The first call, received by Rev. Bay, was from Michigan City, Ind., and was not accepted. The Akron church is a newly organized congregation and Rev. Bay will have a good opportunity to build up a strong church, he feels.

In his resignation tendered Monday evening to the vestry, Rev. Bay set April 10 as the date of his farewell sermon. The congregation will take action on the matter next Sunday.

Rev. Bay has been pastor of the Lima church for more than seven years, coming here from Independence, O., in September of 1913.

FAMILY CONTEST IN COURT OVER MIRROR AND LIBERTY BOND

Mrs. Linnie Shepherd, 609 E. Elm-st., nurse at the Public Health clinic, was in Probate court Tuesday to answer to a charge of contempt of court. Mrs. Shepherd was charged with concealing a Liberty bond and a plate glass mirror from the assets of the estate of her dead brother, John Irwin, late of 609 E. Elm-st.

Mrs. Irwin, aged mother of Mrs. Shepherd, was in court, with three of her sons, for the hearing. Mrs. Irwin, in describing conditions to the court, apparently turned against Mrs. Shepherd and testified, favoring the sons. The daughter has for years provided for her mother, it is said.

A brother, John, testified, in behalf of his sister and what she had done for the family.

Mrs. Shepherd told Judge Hamilton that the real cause of the trouble was due to the fact she forced another brother to pay a debt of $300 he owed her. He sought to humiliate her in court, she said.

Arguments became so heated among members of the family that Judge Hamilton called a halt on the proceedings and ordered Mrs. Shepherd to turn over the property. At the same time, he told her if she had a claim against the estate, to file it. The contempt proceedings were begun under Judge Becker.

O'FERRALL SPEAKS TO LIMA KIWANIS CLUB ON VALUE OF USEFULNESS

"The Value of Usefulness" was the subject of an inspiring address by the Rev. Kirk B. O'Ferrall before the Lima Kiwanis club at its noon luncheon Tuesday. He made the point that to succeed everyone must be useful and said lukewarmness was one of the greatest evils of the day.

The club passed a resolution favoring the establishment of the Lincoln highway, which is being worked out by a commission. The matter was presented by Joe Hartline.

E. T. Lippincott spoke in support of the movement to secure every person possible to give one day to the repair of the roads of Allen-co.

Don John and Jim Grubb sang a number of duets. Mrs. Ed. Siford played the accompaniment.

President Walter Jackson announced that the date for the dinner-dance had been changed to March 25. It was to have been held on

PAY TOO SMALL, SAYS SOLON

Parliament Member Declares He Can't Live on Salary

LONDON. — (By International News Service.)—Interesting evidence on how inadequate the average Member of Parliament's salary is if he is without a private income was put before the select committee set up to inquire into members' expenses by Mr. Dan Irving, M. P., for Burnley.

"I reckon," said Mr. Irving, "that on an average I spend in London, after allowing for the time that I am away, $14 a week, which includes postage, street car fares, food in the house and a single room in which to live."

Mr. Irving said the $1,600 salary is now his only regular income. He had now his only regular income. He had to give up his regular occupation when he became an M. P.

Out of this he pays $420 a year for his third class railroad fare. He has to keep two homes, he said, "with my railroad fare brings my expenses up to $1,480—not a cent for clothing, either for myself or my wife. One does not really live on the $1,600 a year, I cannot do it."

"The only possible way that I could do it at all would be to abandon going home, except at the end of the session, and to give up my railroad pass."

STRUGGLE TO LIVE

"I have to devote time, attention and study to other methods of increasing my income; otherwise I could not possibly live."

"I feel," went on Mr. Irving, "sometimes a little sense of humiliation in mingling with my fellows, when I have to scan every item which I am called upon to spend when in company with other men of reasonable means, a sense of humiliation, because I appear to be mean when other men are. I do not see extravagant, but able to act differently."

All through the war he had been sitting on public bodies "raising everyone's wages except my own," he complained, "and I no sooner escape from that and come here than I am faced with the same situation myself."

After some deliberation the committee recommended:

No change in M. P.'s salaries, but that no income tax should be charged on the salary.

That M. P.'s should have free first-class railroad passes between London and their constituencies, but not their homes.

CURTAIN FALLS TONIGHT ON INCOME TAX REPORTS

Tuesday, the last day for paying federal income tax, found Collector Pete Herr's office in the federal building, crowded with last minute tax-payers. Herr stated that the office will remain open Tuesday night as long as the taxpayers come in, but that anyone who does not get his return in by midnight, will have to pay the penalty.

It is impossible to estimate just how many have paid taxes or how much money has been collected, but it will greatly exceed former years, according to Herr. The taxpayers include citizens from every walk of life, men and women, old and young.

MILWAUKEE BEST LIGHTED CITY 'M'CLAIN FINDS IN WIDE INSPECTION TOUR

Service Director Elmer McClain has returned from an extensive tour of cities in neighboring states where he inspected street lighting systems. He had with him G. H. Gamper, consulting engineer of Columbus.

Plymouth, South Bend, Indianapolis, Richmond and Fort Wayne, Indiana, Chicago, Illinois, and Milwaukee, Wis., were visited. Milwaukee with 30,000 standards has the best system, according to McClain. McClain points out that those who were pioneers in street lighting, such as Indianapolis, now have old-fashioned systems. McClain and Gamper will leave the latter part of the week for Cincinnati, Cleveland and Detroit, for further investigation. McClain is particularly interested in the Cincinnati system as the same kind of lights are used there as in Lima.

The next best thing if you haven't a Brunswick Phonograph, is Brunswick Records on the machine you have.

The figures for the period are $39,085.00, but there is $10,073.39 delinquent. About $10 is collected from assessments annually. The money is used on bonds and interest on bonds floated by the city to obtain to finance improvements.

Bad Checks Cashed by Stranger in Wapak and Lima

ECHO OF A LIMA INCIDENT

"Onion Prognosticator" Says
March and July Will be Wet

WAPAKONETA — (Special) — A smooth stranger, giving his name as John B. Stevens and his home as Findlay, forged a number of checks on the Haues & Butler Co here over signature of E. A. Haues. Four of them turned up at a bank here. Three were cashed in Lima. Each was for $25.00. Authorities of this and nearby cities are making efforts to capture the check writer.

Catholic Welfare Council was formed here by 300 men of immigration. Object is to advance racial interests, social activities, etc.

The Wapakoneta House Builder Co. will erect a four-apartment flat here. Completion is expected a location.

The onion prognosticator has looked into the future and declares March and July will be the wet months for 1911. Here is how he tells it: First he takes six onions, splits them in halves, lays them in a row in a box, sprinkles them liberally with salt and water, and numbers each according to months of the year. Months represented by the onions that attract the most moisture during a certain length of time are the wet months. The prophet who conceals his identity made his test several days ago, and the third and eighth onions attracted more moisture than the others, hence March and July are scheduled as rainy periods.

Be Careful What You
Wash Your Hair With

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle. The best thing to use is Multisulfated coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It is very cheap and beats anything else, all to pieces. You can get Multisulfated at any drug store and a few owners will list the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, elastic, lather, cleans thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Lather loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. Be sure your druggist gives you Multisulfated—Adv.

A Remarkable Home Treatment
Given by One Who Had It

In the year of 1904 I was attacked by Muscular and Sub-Acute Rheumatism. I suffered so only those who are thus afflicted, can know for of this state. I tried various remedies, but such relief as I obtained was only temporary. Finally I found a treatment that cured me completely and such a pitiful condition has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted, even bed-ridden, some of them seem to be cured, some old and the results were the same as in my own case. I want every sufferer from any form of muscular and sub-acute rheumatism to try the great value of my improved Home Treatment for its remarkable healing power. Don't send a cent simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to you. GIRL, 15, PRINTS NEWSPAPER

She Writes Copy, Sets Type
"An' Everything"

(By William K. Hutchinson)
LIBERAL, Kas. — Fifteen-year-old Alice C. Nichols, America's youngest newspaper publisher, has a mighty problem on her hands. Uncle Sam has been bringing her hundreds of letters from every city in the country and little "Miss Publisher" can't find time to read them. Still a school miss, she edits her paper after school hours, sets the type and runs out the 150 copies on a hand press at the Liberal, Kas., Democrat. She publishes once a week.

America's youngest publisher "broke in" when nine years old. She published her first paper, called the "Tiny Town News," to supplement a play given by children at Manhattan, Kas., where her father, Dr. Rescoe T. Nichols, was college surgeon at the Kansas State Agriculture College. After the play Miss Alice continued her newspaper efforts, getting out a weekly with a pencil.

When Alice's father enlisted during the world war she kept him and other Manhattan soldiers "in touch" with home affairs by sending each a copy of her Tiny Town News. Her newspaper then had graduated to the process of being printed on a typewriter and mimeograph.

After her father moved to Liberal, the paper changed its name to "The Nichols Journal." It is now four pages and has a circulation of 150. It is printed in the Liberal Democrat office, where Miss Alice does her editorial, her typesetting and press work once a week.

HIS EDITORIALS, TOO

The Journal carries an editorial every week. It also has display advertising, for which Miss Alice charges ten cents an inch. "It pays to advertise in the Journal," is her comment.

Her editorials, thought out on the way to school and written after school, are enlightening.

"Ignorance is the cause of constant war, starvation and homelessness," she says in a current issue. "It is up to happy American citizens to do away with these conditions."

On the recent crime wave, she says, "The police forces throughout the country have been strengthened to combat the crime wave. But to overcome this mania for crime each individual must guard against it."

On the Christmas spirit she wrote, "Our world wouldn't be such a hard place if we kept this spirit the year around."

INDEPENDENT IN POLITICS
The Journal is independent. Miss Alice says so in her masthead declaration. It is 25 cents a year to "home town" subscribers, but 50 cents a year to out-of-town ones.

And Miss Alice publishes the names of all new subscribers. In a recent issue Miss Alice

You Can't Brush Or Wash Out Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

SPRING STYLE SHOW—IN GREAT-GRANDFATHER'S TIME AND NOW

ALL THE MONEY YOU HAVE CANNOT BUY TWO WORDS IN THESE COLUMNS

GOING FORWARD

LIMA'S Chamber of Commerce is showing pep and push, and with the present hustlers keeping up the pace thruout the year, some concrete results are sure to be obtained. Old timers look askance always when improvements are brought forward, but frankly Lima isn't the showiest place one might wish to choose for permanency.

There is no harm in pointing out shortcomings and no criticism in showing a cause. Our shortcomings are many, but our cause is chiefly money. For the past thirty years Lima has been steadily growing and during the past five years it has added to its prestige by becoming a jobbing center. It is now up to the municipality as a whole to make it a livable place as well. To do this will require money, which speaking in municipal terms, means taxes. Despite the annual croak of the property owner, our taxes on city real estate are comparatively light. If we are to obtain the things we need we must expect to foot the bill.

Our South Side must not be overlooked, and one of the first things the folks in south-western Lima should demand is the purchase of what is left of old Hoyer Lake and the beautifying of that spot for a park. There is already an artificial lake and sufficient forest.

Our South Side High School must be expanded. This has become a necessity of next year, if not this summer. We can't expect the wonderful growth that section has had, without its increasing our school youth in the grades and in the high school. Parents will not long stay in a city where the schools are not top notch.

Tight in the midst of business depression is sometimes the ideal season to pass bond issues, and it will be well for school board and council to make a survey and put every needed improvement squarely up to the voters and keep on putting them up.

If we are to go forward as an industrial city, we must provide school rooms for our kiddies and parks for our old and young alike.

DAYLIGHT SAVING UNPOPULAR

VARIOUS cities in this section of the state are voicing their disapproval of an unsystematic daylight saving plan. The proposal has been defeated in Springfield, Youngstown and Bellefontaine, as well as other cities and more are to take up the proposition soon.

The plan, admittedly a good one during the war when made general, has come to be regarded as a nuisance when carried out in a hit or miss way. Lima had an experience with it last year with the result that council repealed legislation providing for setting the clocks ahead an hour shortly after it had been passed.

Confusion followed the adoption of the idea in some cities while others remained on the old time basis. There was general opposition to it in the rural districts, farmers never being in favor of tampering with the clocks, and their argument was entirely logical.

Daylight saving will never be wholly successful until made statewide, at least. The traveling public cannot be constantly confused by different times at every step and intercourse between communities cannot be satisfactory unless they are on the same time basis. The new-fangled idea is not necessary. We made good progress before it came into use and undoubtedly can get along under the same system henceforth. If anyone wants to save an hour all that is necessary is to set the alarm clock for an hour earlier. They get the same results and their neighbors are not inconvenienced.

WILL ALLEN-CO. LOSE?

IN imminent danger of losing a vast sum of money assured by the Federal government for highway construction in Allen-co, by summary action of the state highway department our county commissioners, surveyor and prosecuting attorney will visit Columbus Wednesday, to go to the mat with the members of the commission, in an effort to have the order pronounced by State Highway Commissioner Leon Herrick, rescinded, or at least modified.

Prospect of receiving $300,000 Federal aid for good roads in Allen-co, was pleasing. The money was pledged. Then like a thunderbolt from a clear sky came the announcement that the new highway commission under Governor Davis, had upset the plans and work of the previous board. No explanation was vouchsafed when the commissioners here were notified that the sum had been reduced to the tune of $208,000, leaving only $92,000 to be given Allen-co.

From other sources it is learned that the parring proposed by the state highway commission is in the interest of the Dixie highway; that the road from Lima to Kenton and Marion for which $128,000 was appropriated and the road from Lima to Bellefontaine, with a fund of $130,000, would have to wait or the necessary money be provided in some other manner.

If the state commission is able to show to the officials of Allen-co that diverting the money to the Dixie highway will be of more benefit to this county than to be expended as originally intended, all well and good. But that hasn't been proven and right now there is a general feeling that it can't be done.

If the accredited officials of Allen-co are unable to secure results from a visit to Columbus, it is intended to have a delegation of citizens storm the citadel of the state highway commission and demand what is manifestly due his county, after a thoro investigation is made and the plans of the department are considered.

FORD IS AN OPTIMIST

FORD, surnamed Henry, automobile wizard, is an optimist. If more men in position to aid a situation would take the attitude attributed to the Michigan man, there would be much less pessimism in this country.

He sees America more than half way along the road leading to a normal industrial production. He foresees the purchasing power of a dollar increased 14 per cent and he says that at this very moment there is work for everybody in the country. Ford is making a trip of inspection over his recently acquired railroad, the Detroit, Toledo & Ironton, and is taking critical note of industrial conditions at all points visited.

Relative to resumption of production in his own plants, Ford states that he will turn out 33,000 cars this month and 80,000 in April. He says he doesn't know what "normalcy" means, exactly, but he feels that the future rests in the state of mind of the American people. He is of the opinion that to make the future of America what it should be, there should be a willingness to work, to do the task in hand and where that is found there is work for everybody.

One big trouble in America, Ford says, is that everybody wants to get as much as they can by doing as little as they can. We can't go along indefinitely, getting more pay for fewer hours' work and have this republic live, is a thought Ford particularly emphasizes. He sees America as the hope of the world and America resting upon the heart that lies in the breast of every American man and woman.

MISS LIMA: "The big trouble today is that millions of motorists are suffering for the sins of the few."

I believe W. J. Bryan is the most courageous man in American public life. He reminds me in a certain way of a prize fighter I once knew out west by the name of Al Kumbak. That is not his real name, but a name he earned. In all his fighting career Al couldn't seem to whip anybody, but the real point of it was that nobody could whip him so as to make him understand that he was licked. Al was a heavyweight, and he would fight anybody from Jim Jeffries to Tom Sharkey without suffering the slightest stage fright. When a fight card was announced and somebody would f. ll down they always sent for Al and he would act as receiver for all the fancy knockout stuff that any imported fighter could bring to our town. He got to be quite well known, and at last became famous enough to be listed with the heavyweights. Some of the biggest heavyweights in the country visited us and whaled away at Al for an hour or two and quit. Al was never knocked out and, so far as anybody knows, never knocked anybody else out. He would take a beating that would take the hearts out of ten ordinary men and then go to a dance and dance the rest of the night. Al toured all over the country and everybody had a crack at him. A good many whipped him, but Al didn't know it. Finally he came back home and said: "Ah, what's the use? Nobody can lick me. I'm going to quit."

Here the similarity between Al and Bill ends. Bill evidently is never going to quit.

JUST FOLKS—BY EDGAR A. GUEST

UNTIL SHE DIED
Until she died we never knew
The beauty of our faith in God.
We'd seen the summer roses nod
And wither as the tempests blew.
Thru many a spring we'd lived to see
The buds returning to the tree.
We had not felt the touch of woe,
What cares had come, had lightly flown.
Our burdens we had borne alone—
The need of God we did not know
It seemed sufficient thru the days
To think and act in worldly ways.
And then she closed her eyes in death

AUTOBOYOGRAPHY

Poem

Standard authors that is to say, writers who never confuse who and whom, usually insert a preface in the beginning of the book, apologetic in spirit and rather fictitious in character, for the preface is obviously written after the book has been finished. I wanted to put a preface in "The Autobiography of a Baby," but father put his foot down on the idea, reminding me that babies should be seen and not heard. I did so wanted to call that maiden effort "Autoboyography," for I had an eye to the future, but father put his other foot down on this idea. So, all in all, I consoled myself with the reflection that dad is not a centipede and went on with my work.
I am old enough now to be heard. At seven a man has convictions as well as the measles and earache. Yet I do not care to ignore father's suggestions quite altogether, so I listened to dad's objections to a preface and compromised with him by calling this preliminary talk a poem, and I'll bet not one reader in twenty would have had the faintest conception what a poem might be if we hadn't offered this one without extra charge. To tell the truth, dad and I ran across the word poem by accident while browsing in Webster's common.
Now that he is old enough to understand the author of "The Autobiography of a Baby" feels a little ashamed of the free and unlimited use he made of the first personal pronoun thruout that narrative. At least he thinks he feels that way, and yet, in discussing the matter with dad, he holds that the honest reader should be less pained by the frequent repetition of such expressions as "I hope" and "I find" than by such weak substitutes as "it is hoped" and "one finds." Be that as it may, "Autoboyography" will be kept as impersonal as father can keep it.
Since hygiene, habits and education are all concerned with the health of the child, some of the following chapters will necessarily touch upon things other than personal hygiene, tho in the briefest possible way with due regard for practicability. Father and I have both an aim in collaborating in this work—to help other fellows along in life.
Thanking you one and all, as the hero says in concluding his curtain speech, at the end of the first act, thanking you one and all for your kind attention and for your cordial approval of "The Autobiography of a Baby," we will now present our attempt at solution of that enigma, the boy.

“AUCTION OF SOULS” IS THRILLING STORY

Tells Tale of Murderous Brutality of Turks Against Peaceful Armenians

“Bird of Paradise” at Faurot Wednesday—Today’s Directory Will Interest

(By Esther Wagner)
W HETHER OR not the picture “Auction of Souls” will appeal to you depends upon several things. Do you care for pictures of full of hardships and suffering that they seem endless? Can you witness wholesale murder and cold-blooded cruelties one after another without feeling your equanimity? Do you believe it is helping the cause to have these incidents visualized? The story is said to be an exact copy of the atrocities to which the women and children of Armenia were forced to submit during the recent war. They were a home-loving people, with no thought of towards their government; yet the Turks invaded their homes and brutally murdered the men, drove the women into exile and disposed of children in unspeakable ways. Aurora Mardiganian who enacted one of the leading roles, is herself the sole survivor of the cruel treatment she and her family suffered at the hands of the Turks and Kurds, and it must have taken courage on her part to enact again the terrible happenings which had been imprinted on her memory. Anna Q. Nilsson is here too, and Irving Cummings. The scenes where the men are impaled to register and then burned the animals, where girls are tied to the tails of maddened horses and dashed over the rocks; where the children, to make the boats lighter, are chucked into the sea; where the women see their own daughters taken off by persecutors; they are all horrible beyond words. What these poor people suffered for their faith and their courage is all, is wonderful, and will go down in history no doubt. But the war is over. We are trying to forget it. Why exhibit a picture like “Auction of Souls” at a time like this and bring back to mind those terrible four years? Here’s my opinion: “Auction of Souls” is a worthy picture, but it’s just about three years too late. It is appearing at the Lyric.

Faurot—“The Bird of Paradise”
The many adherents of the drama will rejoice to learn that the offering at the Faurot for Wednesday night will be Richard Walton Tully’s ever popular favorite “The Bird of Paradise” with Florence Rockwell in the role of Luana. The piece is now in its ninth year of unabated success, and each year it is presented here it seems to retain itself more firmly around the hearts of theatregoers. With nothing lost and much gained by the popular mana loa Hawaiian lullabies, and the wail of the ukulele and steel guitar, the Tully offering is destined to live for many years more. With a new production announced, and the same capable cast that appeared last season, the management anticipates another “Bird

Easy For Thin People to Put on Flesh and Gain Weight
It is such an easy matter nowadays for thin, weak, scrawny people to put on good, healthy, solid flesh and become plump and graceful that one often wonders why there are still so many people who seem to prefer to be “all skin and bone” ungainly and unpleasant to look upon. Physicians have long known that whoever could discover a remedy that would cause the food that one puts into the stomach to turn into good, rich, flesh-making blood instead of going to waste, would also discover how to put healthy muscular flesh onto thin undernourished people and this has now been accomplished. If you are thin under developed, nervous, weak, or lack vigor and vitality, you can secure at any good pharmacy at moderate cost, a ten day treatment of EVANS’ TRIPLE PHOSPHATE, a new combination of flesh producing, muscle building, strength creating elements that is guaranteed to put good, solid, lasting flesh on your body and to make you strong, healthy and vigorous—or money back. Physicians who have watched the results of the Evans’ Triple Phosphate treatment are astonished at its rapid action—often in a month five to ten pounds of desirable weight is gained. FIXES BLAME FOR DELAY ON STATE

CHICAGO — Responsibility for delay in the trial of the indicted players and others in the baseball scandal was thrown upon the state by President Johnson of the American League in a statement made public today.

He declared there would have been no controversy such as caused the postponement of the opening hearing yesterday until Thursday if the cases had NOT been bungled when they first came up before the grand jury.

JOHNSON IS WORRIED

"It would be a calamity to organize baseball if the scandal resulted in a fiasco for lack of evidence," Johnson said, "because it would hold other players to take chances. We have been handicapped by the change in administration of the state's attorney's office and by the congestion of the criminal court docket. During the grand jury examination, many important witnesses who were summoned, were excluded without justifying."

HINTS MORE SCANDAL

"It is entirely within the limits of probability that the names of several players who have not been mentioned in connection with the case will be uncovered before we get them with them."

The testimony of Eddie Cicotte, Claude Williams and Joe Jackson, who confessed before the grand jury their share in throwing the 1919 world's series, is lost to the state, it was said in court yesterday, as they would refuse to testify on the ground they could not be forced to incriminate themselves.

Henry Berger, representing Al Attol and others mentioned in the indictments, told Judge William E. Dever, that Charles Nims, named in the indictment for technical reasons as a person who lost $250 in a wager on the "hooked series," had come to his office and offered to "sell out." Berger added that his associate had thrown Nims out of the office.

RICKARD REFUSES TO NAME SITE FOR 'BIG SH

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK—Tex Rickard is not ready to announce where Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier will make their fortunes.

The proprietor of the big show said today he probably would let the public in on his little secret within a week—or maybe not until April 1.

Failure to get a few minor ends together prevented him from announcing the scene of the battle today, as he intended, he said.

Rickard laughed at the stories that the fight has blown up.

"These false tales that Carpentier hasn't his forfeit money posted, that his wife has forbidden him to go thru with his agreement and that he's looking for a way to run out of it, are good advertising if they are not true," he said.

Carpentier is sailing from France for America on May 14, and will arrive here about May 15, according to Captain T. J. Mallet, close friend and American representative of the Frenchman.

"In a letter just received, Carpentier says he will close his exhibition April 15, and will rest until the sailing," Mallet said. "It is that Descamps has not posted the money to credit American Bank named in the ment. The money is just as it were deposited in this count. New Yorkers still cling to that the 'big town' will get Rickard had a long conference boxing commission the other the sure thing rumors flew ag

FIX IT HARD FOR STATE TO WIN

COLUMBUS.—Following a meeting of Ohio conference athletic officials, it was decided that Ohio State in big six meets hereafter, will have to score more points than the total of the other schools entered, in order to be declared winner.

The officials ruled that Ohio State has become so large that it is unfair to other schools to be placed on the same basis of competition.

GET MORE MEN

As a counter-balance, Ohio State will be permitted to enter four men in each event, while the other schools will only be allowed as herebefore, to enter two men.

The big six track and field meet will be held here May 27 and 28.

Thin Folks

Who want to put on good, firm flesh increase their weight to normal and build up plenty of nerve force and vitality should try eating a little Vitamon with their meals. VITAMON supplies the body with the real health-giving, nourishment called the vitamins which are now lost in the cooking of such everyday foods as potatoes, bread, rice, etc.

Here is a simple test well worth trying. First weigh yourself and measure yourself, next take Vitamon—two tablets with every meal. Then weigh and measure yourself again each week and continue taking Vitamon regularly until you are satisfied with your gain in weight and energy. It is not only a question of how much better you look and feel or what your friends say and think—the scales and tape measure will tell their own story. Vitamon positively will put on firm flesh and increase energy when taken with every meal, but should not be used by anyone who OBJECTS to having their weight increased to normal. Results are absolutely guaranteed or money refunded. Your own druggist has Vitamon in stock or can quickly procure it for you. Be sure to remember the name VITAMON—there is nothing else like it.

11. MISCELLANEOUS FOR SALE

COAL VALUES
The actual cost of fuel can only be determined by the amount of heat it gives forth. The standard for measuring coal values is the number of
B. T. U.'s (British Thermal Units) in each pound of fuel.

Hence it often happens that cheap coal actually costs more, in results, than that sold at a much higher price. Coal low in heat is always high in ash.

For instance some coals now being offered only give 11,000 B. T. U.'s and 15% ash, while Pocahontas and similar coals produce 15,000 or more, with but 3% ash. All our coals are high in Heat Units in their class.

For prompt service, courteous treatment and quality coals—try us.

MISCELLANEOUS FOR SALE

COAL VALUES
The actual cost of fuel can only be determined by the amount of heat it will furnish. The standard for measuring coal values is the number of
B. T. U. (British Thermal Units) in each pound of fuel.
Hence it often happens that cheap coal actually costs more, in results, than that sold at a much higher price. Coal low in heat is always high in ash.
For instance some coals now being offered only give 11,000 B. T. U. and 15% ash, while Pocahontas and similar coals produce 15,000 or more
B. T. U. with but 12% ash. All our coals are High in Heat Units, in their class.
For prompt service, courteous treatment and quality coals—try us.
